Legacies of War
1628 16th Street NW, Third Floor
Washington, DC 20009

Dear Friends:

As Chair of the Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus (CAPAC) and a member of the Honorary Committee for tonight's event, it is my distinct pleasure to welcome you to the Legacies of War reception.

Since 2004, Legacies of War has been raising awareness about the Vietnam War-era bombing of Laos and has advocated for the clearance of unexploded bombs. Through the use of art, culture, community organizing and education, Legacies of War has created an important dialogue about healing and has been critical in bringing people together to foster unity and hope out of the wreckage of war.

The Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus is comprised of 42 Members of Congress dedicated to promoting the well-being of the Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community. Since 1994, CAPAC has worked to meet the unmet needs and concerns of AAPI's in all areas of life.

On behalf of the Members of the CAPAC, I commend Legacies of War for their unwavering commitment to healing and hope and I look forward to working together to create a better future for all.

Sincerely,

JUDY CHU, PhD
Member of Congress
CAPAC Chairwoman
